SUMMARY

This bill increases revenues to the industry by approximately $800,000 to provide for increased purses for horsemen to provide track owners with necessary capital improvement funds, to increase the Sire Stakes Program and to provide funds for the Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Resources for certain programs.

The above funding will be accomplished by increasing the take on straight betting by 2% and by increasing the take on exotic betting by 1%. A cap will be imposed on the State's tax at the level of $37,000,000.

Senate Amendment A (S-381) adds the allocation section required to allocate funds to the Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Resources from Other Special Revenue accounts to fund the establishment of an administrative coordinator position. The amendment also adds a fiscal note.
