This bill requires that, in order to register an automobile, a person must present proof of automobile

Committee Amendment "A" (H-240) replaces the bill and establishes the method of satisfying the requirement of showing evidence of insurance. It adds alternative methods for providing proof of insurance consistent with the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 29, section 787 of the financial responsibility laws. It exempts government vehicles. It exempts dealer vehicles and rental vehicles as they are already required to prove compliance with the financial responsibility laws. The amendment also repeals the sunset on the financial responsibility laws. The amendment also adds a fiscal note to the bill.
