SUMMARY

This bill increases the fee for obtaining a marriage license from $10 to $50, and earmarks the increase to fund domestic violence programs through the Department of Human Services. Three dollars of the increase is kept by the collecting municipality to cover administrative costs. A fee waiver is provided for those who can not afford the license fee.

Committee Amendment "B" (H-179) removes the provision from the original bill that limits the expenditure of funds to the operation of shelters or safe homes, allowing domestic violence programs to use the funds for outreach and other services. It also decreases the marriage license fee from $50, as proposed in the original bill, to $45 and allows municipalities to retain a larger share of the increase. The original bill's fee-waiver provision is eliminated. The amendment also increases the fee for the first copy of a birth, marriage or death certificate from $5 to $10. It also adds an allocation section and a fiscal note to the bill.

Senate Amendment "C" (S-121) amends Committee Amendment "B" by removing the dedication of the marriage license fee increase and depositing the increased revenue to the General Fund.
