This bill would have returned the rate of legislative salary to $9,900 during the first year and $6,600 during the 2nd year of the biennium. It also would have returned the housing allowance to $34 per day, the meal allowance to $26 per day and the special session per diem to the rate of $55 per day. These changes would have returned the rates to what they were prior to the December 5, 1990 increase.

SUMMARY

This bill added the creation and implementation of an annual audit and review process of quasi-municipal corporations to the duties of the State Auditor. The bill also required quasi-municipal corporations to participate in these audits and pay associated costs. Further, reports resulting from these audits and reviews were declared public documents and their distribution to appropriate municipal officials and state agencies was required.
