SPONSOR(S)	COMMITTEE REPORT	AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

This bill eliminates the provision that a person is automatically shifted from disability pay to normal retirement pay at age 70. Under this bill the switch is made only when the retiree receives more compensation as a result of the switch. Currently, persons on retirement disability receive 2/3 of their regular compensation until regular retirement compensation exceeds that amount or until they are 10 years past the normal retirement age of 60 years.

SUMMARY

This bill permits the Maine State Retirement System to recover from a retiree's benefits the amount of any overpayment or excess refund of contributions.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-97) provides that interest may not be collected on overpayments or excess contributions if the overpayment or excess contribution was the result of an unintentional mistake by an employee of the retirement system, the retiree or the recipient of the benefit.
