SUMMARY

This bill requires that a new employer include an employee's service with a previous employer for the purpose of calculating benefits. Currently, members of the Maine State Retirement System may transfer between state employment and teaching without affecting their retirement benefits. However, in transfers between state employment and a local district, teaching and a local district or 2 local districts, it is up to the new employer whether to include a member's service under a previous employer with the service under the new employer for benefit calculation purposes.
