LD 1028 An Act to Clarify the Provisions for Temporary and Conditional Psychologists' Licenses

PUBLIC 144

SPONSOR(S)	COMMITTEE REPORT	AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
KUTASI VIGUE RICH	OTP

SUMMARY

Currently, 32 MRSA §3824 provides for a temporary license for psychologists to practice under supervision while waiting to take the board examination. This license is valid for 1 year. This bill requires an oral examination as a condition to being granted this license. Section 3836 provides for a temporary license for a licensee from another state while waiting to take the Maine examination. This license requires an oral examination and is valid until the next written examination. This bill changes the name of this second type of license to a conditional license. This bill makes this second license effective for 1 year and requires that that practice be supervised. In a rather confusing addition, it requires that an oral examination be passed during the term of the temporary license.

LD 1067 An Act Relating to Real Estate Broker Disclosure

ONTP

BRANNIGAN GRAHAM	ONTP

SUMMARY

This bill requires that a real estate agent inform the buyer of real estate, prior to the buyer's needs being disclosed, that the agent represents the seller, unless, in the case of a nonlisting agent, the buyer elects to have the agent be a dual agent or represent the buyer. The bill requires that the reimbursement of a buyer's agent be agreed to between seller and listing agent. It also requires that the seller be given the option of whether subagency will be offered.
