COMMITTEE REPORT
OTP-AM

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
S-243

SUMMARY

This bill provides funds to Legal Services for the Elderly, Inc. and Pine Tree Legal Assistance, Inc. to assist Maine residents to become eligible for federal disability benefits. Some of the funds are deappropriated from the State accounts for General Assistance and Aid to Families with Dependent Children, since enhanced access to federal disability benefits reduces the need for those programs.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-243) replaces the original bill. Rather than deappropriating funds for the General Assistance and Aid to Families with Dependent Children programs, the Department of Human Services is authorized to use a limited amount of funds from those programs to provide legal services to assist recipients of those programs to become qualified to receive federal disability benefits. The amendment also adds a fiscal note to the bill.

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
H-402

SUMMARY

This bill instructs the Department of Human Services to inform the guardian ad litem of a child in foster care prior to changing the placement of that child.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-402) replaces the original bill. It achieves the same end as the original bill by amending existing law rather than creating a new section. It also adds a fiscal note to the bill.
