COMMITTEE REPORT
ONTP

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

The purpose of the bill was to clarify in the existing law regarding the rights of the terminally ill that emergency medical personnel may rely upon the patient's advance directives such as a living will, a durable medical power of attorney or a do not resuscitate order in treating the patient. Currently, emergency medical services personnel may not honor a valid and legally authorized living will or other advance directives. This results in the emergency medical services attendant performing resuscitative efforts when a competent patient has given clear instructions otherwise.
