SUMMARY

In January, 1992, a Magistrate Judge for the U.S. District Court in Maine ruled unconstitutional the Maine law prohibiting law enforcement officers from soliciting property from the general public when the property would tangibly benefit any law enforcement officer, agency or association. The bill would have amended that law to permit solicitation when no direct benefit would be realized by that officer or that officer's department or agency.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-580), the minority committee report, would have replaced the bill. It would have repealed current Maine law prohibiting solicitation by law enforcement officers and would have repealed the legislative intent section of Public Law 1991, chapter 510, which amended the solicitation law in the First Regular Session of the 115th Legislature.

SUMMARY

The bill amends current law governing non-uniform rent changes in mobile home parks to provide that there is no presumption that a non-uniform rent change is unfair when approved by a majority vote of the members in a resident-owned cooperative.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-1030) adds a definition of "resident-owned cooperative." It provides that the law applies to any corporation or other legal entity that owns a mobile home park and that is owned solely by residents of the mobile home park.

SUMMARY

The bill would have permitted agency liquor stores to sell spirits for a price higher than the price established for state liquor stores, and would have permitted restaurants, bars and other liquor licensees to purchase spirits at agency liquor stores without paying an 8% markup. The bill would also have required the State to operate warehouses for the storage and delivery of spirits in the State.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-625) replaces the bill. It requires the Bureau of Alcoholic Beverages to study the feasibility, including the costs and revenues, of establishing a state-run bailment warehouse for the storage of liquor. The Bureau is to report to the Legislature by December 1, 1992.
