SUMMARY

The bill proposed several changes to the law regarding licensing and hiring of shellfish harvesters engaged in depuration digging.

Committee amendment "A" (H-1193) requires depuration certificate holders to pay municipalities 50¢ for each bushel of soft-shelled clams harvested in that municipality under a depuration certificate. The amendment also requires that, to the extent possible, depuration certificate holders employ residents of the municipality in which the harvesting occurs in equal proportion to employees who are not residents of that municipality.
