COMMITTEE REPORT
OTP-AM

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
S-31

SUMMARY

This bill clarifies the embargo authority of the Maine Sardine Council and reinstates the substance of the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 32, former section 4155, pertaining to the council's authority to require packers to file code plans and the council's authority to enforce an embargo through the courts. The provisions of Title 32, former section 4155 that are reinstated in this bill were repealed by Public Law 1991, chapter 446, a bill that transferred the administration of the sardine grading program from the Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Resources to the Maine Sardine Council.

The bill also makes several technical changes to ensure the consistent use of terms and definitions pertaining to the licensing of packers and the packing of sardines, kippers and steaks.

Committee amendment "A" (S-31) amended the bill by changing the penalty for persons who violate the Maine Sardine Law from a Class E crime to a civil violation with a maximum fine of $1,000.

COMMITTEE REPORT

SUMMARY

This bill would have abolished the Atlantic Sea Run Salmon Commission and placed the powers and duties formerly held by the commission under the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. To accomplish this, the bill proposed to repeal the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 12, chapter 611, which falls under the marine resources laws, and enact similar language in the statutes governing the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. The bill would have abolished all positions at the Atlantic Sea Run Salmon Commission and transferred all its property, contracts, records and equipment to the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife.
