ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTEENTH LEGISLATURE FIRST REGULAR SESSION

JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE
BILL SUMMARIES

JULY 1993

This document is a compilation of the bill summaries prepared by this office for the Joint Standing Committees and Joint Select Committees of the Maine Legislature. The volume is organized alphabetically by committee; within each committee, the summaries are arranged by LD number. A subject index is provided at the beginning of each committee's summaries.

The committee report or reports, the prime sponsor for each bill and the lead co-sponsor in each house if one has been designated are listed below each bill title. All adopted amendments are listed, by paper number (e.g., H-584 or S-222), together with the sponsor for floor amendments. Final action on each bill is listed to the right of the title. Various types of final action are abbreviated as follows:

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
H-208 ROTONDI
H-99

SUMMARY

This bill proposed to provide that any person convicted of shooting a domestic animal or of wounding or killing a person while hunting permanently loses the privilege to hunt.

The committee amendment (H-99) strikes and replaces the bill. Under this amendment a person convicted of violating Title 12, section 7406, subsection 14 (shooting a domestic animal) loses the privilege to hunt for 5 years. A person convicted of committing a crime against a person while hunting, if that crime involved a failure to properly identify the target, loses the privilege to hunt for 10 years. A person is entitled to have the privilege reinstated after the revocation period provided that person completes a firearm safety training program.

The house amendment (H-208) provides for an opportunity for a hearing upon revocation of a license.

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
H-203

SUMMARY

This bill proposed to make a hunting license revocation mandatory for any person convicted of night hunting or illegally killing a large game animal.

The committee amendment (H-203) strikes and replaces the bill. This amendment provides for mandatory hunting and fishing license revocations for certain listed violations of the hunting and fishing laws of this State.
