SUMMARY

Under Maine law consumers receive annual notices of their right to cancel open-end credit insurance under the Maine Consumer Credit Code. This bill exempts from that law open-end credit insurance.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-174) allows initial purchases to be made with a credit card, while requiring advanced notice of the charge if it is made on an annual basis. It exempts charges under open-end credit insurances already subject to 9-A MRSA §4-204.
