outfitter's business to another outfitter. The bill proposed to remove this impediment. It would have left in place the requirement that if an outfitter sells the outfitter's entire business the outfitter must surrender the outfitter's license to the department.

6. The bill proposed to remove the provision of law requiring the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife to set aside 10% of the recreational use on rapidly flowing rivers for noncommercial use.

(All of these provisions were adopted in LD 736, except that item 3, above, was adopted in modified form.)
