LD 807 An Act Regarding Records of Notaries Public PUBLIC 485

SPONSOR(S)	COMMITTEE REPORT	AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
FAIRCLOTH	OTP-AM	H-720

SUMMARY

Current statutory language requires that the records of a resigning notary public be deposited with the clerk of the judicial courts in the county for which the notary public was appointed. This language raises questions as to whether the intent is for these records to be deposited in the District Court or in the Superior Court, and also as to whether the records properly belong with the courts at all.

This legislation tracks the language of the archives law, in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 5, section 95, subsection 10, concerning the public records of any public office and requires that public records be transferred to the custody of the State Archivist upon the termination of the existence or function of the public office.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (H-720) removes the record-keeping requirement and instead directs the Secretary of State to recommend that records be kept. The amendment also removes the forfeit requirement for failure to deposit records. The amendment also adds a fiscal note.
