S-67

SUMMARY

This bill requires that a consumer purchasing a used car be informed whether the vehicle had been the subject of a Maine lemon law decision or settlement.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-67) replaces the original bill and requires that a consumer purchasing a used car be informed whether the vehicle had been the subject of a lemon law decision or settlement, whether in Maine or any other state. In addition, this amendment establishes that any person who knowingly fails to disclose to the dealer any information the dealer is required to place on the used car information sticker is liable, in addition to damages, for attorneys' fees in any action brought under this section.

COMMITTEE REPORT

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

S-72

SUMMARY

The purpose of this bill is to require transient door-to-door sellers of home repair services to register with the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation before they may solicit any home repair work. Violations of these laws may result in criminal and civil penalties. The Department of the Attorney General is to provide the Department of Professional and Financial Regulation with all forms necessary to conduct this registration program.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-72) eliminates the section of the bill which would have specifically made fraudulent sales tactics a violation of provisions of this new home repair services law. It reduces the initial registration fee from $200 to $100 and the renewal fee from $100 to $75. The amendment raises the civil penalties for violation of the law from $1,000 to $2,000 and from $2,000 to $5,000 for subsequent offenses or an offense against a person over 60 years old. The amendment makes the law enforceable by both the Attorney General and the District Attorney.
