This bill would have made several changes to the child development services system. It would have reduced the responsibilities of the Department of Education for oversight of the 16 regional sites providing services to preschool handicapped children; eliminated the state level intermediate education unit responsible for performing certain state level functions; and limited special education services for preschool handicapped children to services required by federal law.

The bill would have appropriated $2,273,440 for fiscal year 1993-94 and fiscal year 1994-95 for Preschool Handicapped Children Services.

LD 843      An Act Regarding Certification Fees for Adult Education Teachers      INDEF PP

SUMMARY

Under current law, the certification fees for adult education teachers are the same as regular full-time teachers. House Amendment "A" added a fiscal note to the bill.
