AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

This bill, modeled after New Hampshire legislation, would have made the following changes in the State's campaign finance laws:

1. Added to the duties of the Commission on Governmental Ethics and Election Practices the duty to monitor federal and campaign finance laws of the State and market trends that might require changes and to include these issues in its annual report;
2. Provided a definition of "independent expenditure";
3. Given candidates for the Senate and House of Representatives the option of limiting personal and total expenditures on their campaigns to statutory limits in return for a simpler reporting system of expenditures and higher limits on contributions by individuals and political action committees; and
4. Set a fine on candidates who agreed to cap spending of 100% of the amount their expenditures exceeded the statutory limits.
