The amendment also adds a fiscal note.

HOUSE AMENDMENT "A" (H-1031) TO COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" would have replaced Committee Amendment "A". This amendment would have made changes to the laws governing the training and certification of law enforcement officers that are similar to the changes in House Amendment "B", except that House Amendment "B" specifies that the standards that apply to all candidates for admission to the academy must meet or exceed any academic and physical admission standards, including standards of the State Police, in effect prior to January 1, 1996.

The amendment also would have replaced the allocation and fiscal note in the amendment.

SENATE AMENDMENT "A" (S-572) TO COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" would have authorized the Board of Trustees of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy to offer to municipal chief law enforcement officers training course relating to background investigations of individuals seeking concealed firearm permits and would have further required that those chief law enforcement officers bear the responsibility for conducting those investigations. If there were no chief law enforcement in a municipality, the Chief of the State Police would have had to conduct the investigation.

SENATE AMENDMENT "B" (S-581) TO COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" would have replaced the committee amendment. The amendment would have incorporated House Amendment "A" to Committee Amendment "A", except that, additionally, this amendment would have authorized the Board of Trustees of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy to offer to municipal chief law enforcement officers training courses relating to background investigations of individuals seeking concealed firearm permits and would have further required that those chief law enforcement bear the responsibility for conducting those investigations. If there were no chief law enforcement officer in a municipality, the Chief of the State Police would have had to conduct the investigation.

SENATE AMENDMENT "C" (S-591) TO COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" would have replaced the committee amendment. This amendment would have incorporated House Amendment "B" to Committee Amendment "A" except that, additionally, this amendment would have required that the chief law enforcement officer in a municipality must have the responsibility for conducting background investigations of individuals seeking concealed firearm permits. If there were no chief law enforcement officer in a municipality, the Chief of the State Police or the sheriff in that county would have had to conduct the investigation.
