COMMITTEE REPORT

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

SUMMARY

The purpose of the bill is to establish an administrative method for the collection of overpayments made by benefit programs administered by the Department of Human Services after the individuals who have been overpaid stop receiving benefits. The bill would permit the Department of Human Services to collect overpayments by issuing income withholding orders to employers, executing wage assignments, filing liens against the obligor's property and reporting unpaid amounts to consumer credit reporting agencies. Necessary due process requirements for prior notice, opportunity for hearing and right to judicial review are included in the bill.
