Sexual Offenders

COMMITTEE REPORT

AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

H-619

SUMMARY

Current law provides that the court may order HIV testing of convicted offenders of gross sexual assault only if the petitioner proves certain facts. The bill amends the language to clarify that if such facts are proven, the court must order the testing.

Committee "A" (H-619) clarifies that although the court must order the initial test of a sex offender, any subsequent testing may be ordered in the court's discretion. Federal law requires the court to order the initial test for the State to qualify for specific Department of Justice grants; federal law is silent as to subsequent testing.
