An Act to Ensure Continued Federal Support for Unemployed Workers during Periods of High UnemploymentPUBLIC 528
EMERGENCY

SPONSOR(S)	COMMITTEE REPORT		AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
HANDY	OTP-AM	MAJ	S-438
RUHLIN	OTP-AM	MIN	S-446 PEARSON

SUMMARY

This bill takes advantage of an option provided in a July 1992 amendment to the Federal - State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970 that permits the State to provide an additional 13 weeks or 20 weeks in periods of high unemployment to persons who have exhausted their regular unemployment benefits, at a cost borne 50% by the Federal Unemployment Trust Fund and 50% by the State's Unemployment Trust Fund. The bill also reduces the surcharge that was scheduled to increase on January 1, 1994 on employer's contributions by 1/10 of 1%.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (S-438) like the original bill, implements the statutory language necessary for the State to use the optional extended benefit triggering method allowed by federal law. The amendment restricts the applicability of the new triggering method to ensure that only one 13-week period of extended benefits will be provided. The amendment also extends the freeze on the maximum weekly benefit amount from May 31, 1995 to October 28, 1995, a date calculated to ensure that 50% of the State's cost of this program comes from the Unemployment Trust Fund and 50% of the cost is borne by limiting benefit payments. This amendment also removes from the bill the 1/10 of 1% reduction in the employer surcharge and adds a fiscal note.

SENATE AMENDMENT "B" (S-446) removes the funding provisions in Committee Amendment "A" with the intent of having state agencies absorb the additional unemployment costs within existing resources.

LD 1745 An Act Concerning Independent Contractors

ONTP

SPONSOR(S)	COMMITTEE REPORT		AMENDMENTS ADOPTED
HANDY	ONTP

SUMMARY

This bill was intended to simplify the determination of independent contractor status by creating a uniform definition of independent contractor to apply throughout the Maine Revised Statutes. Certain minor exceptions were made for uniform state laws. The bill would have provided that a determination of independent contractor status, made by one state agency, would be binding on all other state agencies unless a party could show by clear and convincing evidence that the employment relationship changed since the prior determination. An aggrieved party would have retained the right to seek review of an agency's legal conclusions by court appeal.
