Summary Of Legislation Before The Joint Standing Committees
May 1998

We are pleased to provide this summary of bills that were considered by the Joint Standing Committees of the Maine Legislature. The document is a compilation of bill summaries which describe each bill and relevant amendments, as well as the final action taken. Also included are statistical summaries of bill activity this Session for the Legislature and each of its joint standing committees.

The document is organized for convenient reference to information on bills handled by the joint standing committees. It is organized by committees and within committees by bill (LD) number. The committee report(s), prime sponsor for each bill and the lead co-sponsor(s), if designated, are listed below each bill title. All adopted amendments are listed by paper number. Two indices, a subject index and a numerical index by LD number are provided for easy reference to bills. They are located at the back of the document. A separate publication, History and Final Disposition of Legislative Documents, may also be helpful in providing information on the disposition of bills. These bill summaries also are available at the Law and Legislative Reference Library and on the Internet (www.state.me.us/legis/opla).

LD 1398 was carried over from the First Regular and First Special Sessions and proposed to clarify the authority of school boards in disciplining exceptional students. Under the provisions of this bill, school boards:

1. Have the duty to apply an appropriate disciplinary sanction to an exceptional student whose misconduct violates school rules;
2. May authorize superintendents, principals or assistant principals to sanction exceptional students for such infractions; and
3. May interrupt an exceptional student's special education program when that student is suspended from school for 10 days or less.

The bill further proposed to require the Department of Education to remove state special education regulations that compel school administrative units to provide special educational services to an exceptional student who has been suspended for violation of school rules.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-809), the majority report of the Joint Standing Committee on Education and Cultural Affairs, proposed to remove the word "deliberate" from the bill, which would enact the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 20-A, section 1001, subsection 9-B, to make that provision consistent with recently reauthorized federal statutes and proposed federal regulations related to sanctioning exceptional students for misconduct that violates school rules.

Enacted law summary

Public Law 1997, chapter 594 clarifies the authority of school boards in disciplining exceptional students. Under the provisions of this law, school boards:

1. Have the duty to apply an appropriate disciplinary sanction to an exceptional student whose misconduct violates school rules;
2. May authorize superintendents, principals or assistant principals to sanction exceptional students for such infractions; and
3. May interrupt an exceptional student's special education program when that student is suspended from school for 10 days or less.

The law further requires the Department of Education to remove state special education regulations that compel school administrative units to provide special educational services to an exceptional student who has been suspended for violation of school rules.
