Two indices, a subject index and a numerical index by LD number are provided for easy reference to bills. They are located at the back of the document. A separate publication, History and Final Disposition of Legislative Documents, may also be helpful in providing information on the disposition of bills. These bill summaries also are available at the Law and Legislative Reference Library and on the Internet (www.state.me.us/legis/opla).

PUBLIC 262

Sponsor(s) DUNLAP DAVIS P		Committee Report OTP-AM		Amendments Adopted H-416
--	--	-----------------------------------	--	------------------------------------

LD 2070 proposed to protect library and museum materials possessed by a person pursuant to a borrower's agreement by clarifying that unlawful retention of these materials is theft. It also proposed to create a new crime, "theft or destruction of institutional property." As proposed, a person is guilty of this crime if the person takes, uses or exercises control over or defaces or destroys property of a library, school, college, museum, church or public institution. The class of crime is based on the value of property and whether it can be replaced. The bill also proposed that as an alternative to criminal prosecution, an offender may be charged with a civil violation and the court must order restitution.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-416) proposed to rename the title to reflect the scope of the bill and strike the provision that created the new crime, theft or destruction of institutional property. The amendment also proposed to add a fiscal note to the bill.

Enacted law summary

Public Law 1999, chapter 262 protects library and museum materials possessed by a person pursuant to a borrower's agreement by clarifying that unlawful retention of these materials is theft.
