121st Maine Legislature First Regular Session

Summary Of Legislation Before The Joint Standing Committees

Enclosed please find a summary of all bills, resolves, joint study orders, joint resolutions and Constitutional resolutions that were considered by the joint standing and joint select committees of the Maine Legislature this past session. The document is a compilation of bill summaries which describe each bill and relevant amendments, as well as the final action taken. Also included are statistical summaries of bill activity this session for the Legislature and each of its joint standing committees.

The document is organized for convenient reference to information on bills considered by the committees. It is arranged alphabetically by committee name and within committees by bill (LD) number. The committee report(s), prime sponsor for each bill and the lead co-sponsor(s), if designated, are listed below each bill title. All adopted amendments are listed by paper number. Two indices, a subject index and a numerical index by LD number are provided for easy reference to bills. They are located at the back of the document. A separate publication, History and Final Disposition of Legislative Documents, may also be helpful in providing information on the disposition of bills. These bill summaries also are available at the Law and Legislative Reference Library and on the Internet (www.state.me.us/legis/opla).

Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary

Committee Amendment "A" (S-215) proposed to replace the bill. It proposed to provide training requirements for court security officers. Current law authorizes the State Court Administrator to employ court security officers who have valid certification as law enforcement officers as well as specific training in court security functions.

This amendment proposed to define "court security officer" in the context of law enforcement training.

This amendment proposed to require the Maine Criminal Justice Academy to establish certification standards and a training program for court security officers.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2003, chapter 400 provides training requirements for court security officers, defines "court security officer" in the context of law enforcement training, and requires the Maine Criminal Justice Academy to establish certification standards and a training program for court security officers. The program must include 100 hours of preservice training for law enforcement officers, a 40-hour training course on court security and continuing education requirements to maintain certification. Completion of basic law enforcement training satisfies the preservice training requirement.

LD 340 proposed to amend the laws with regard to post-conviction review.

House Amendment "A" (H-28) was offered on behalf of the Committee on Engrossed Bills to correct a technical error in the bill.

Enacted Law Summary

Public Law 2003, chapter 29 amends the laws concerning post-conviction review.

It broadens the definition of "assigned justice" to include a judge of the District Court who has been given authorization to sit in the Superior Court on post-conviction review cases; allows a judge of the District Court who has been given authorization to sit in the Superior Court on post-conviction review cases to exercise the same jurisdiction as the Superior Court Justice relative to post-conviction review proceedings; replaces a reference to the Attorney General with a reference to the prosecutorial office that earlier represented the State in the underlying criminal or juvenile proceeding; provides that representation of the respondent can be either the office of the Attorney General or the office of a district attorney; and repeals the requirement that the procedure for the assignment of a post-conviction review case be addressed pursuant to an administrative order by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court. With its repeal, the assignment of petitions for post-conviction review becomes a matter to be addressed by the Supreme Judicial Court by rule.
