Joint Standing Committee on Judiciary

damages and compensation through criminal restitution law and the Victims' Compensation Fund. It requires rulemaking by the Department of Labor for the purposes of victim restitution.

Chapter 684 directs the Attorney General to convene a broad working group to address human trafficking issues. Monitoring international matchmaking organizations is added to the list of tasks, as is whether a special statute of limitations tolling provision is appropriate because of victims' cultural and linguistic isolation. The working group will report to the Legislature by January 15, 2010.

Chapter 684 is effective January 1, 2009, except that the provisions establishing the Attorney General's working group on human trafficking and the definition of "work loss" and rulemaking in the Department of Labor regarding work loss take effect 90 days after adjournment.

Chapter 684 requires the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over criminal justice and public safety matters, after consultation with the joint standing committees of the Legislature having jurisdiction over judiciary matters and appropriations and financial affairs, to submit legislation to the First Regular Session of the 124th Legislature establishing the Criminal Code Revision Commission for the purpose of reviewing, revising, unifying, recodifying and consolidating Maine's criminal laws, including, but not limited to, the Maine Criminal Code. A comprehensive revision of the Maine Criminal Code has not occurred since 1976.

LD 507 An Act To Require the Accommodation of Religious Practices in Correctional Facilities

PUBLIC 546

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
SOCTOMAH	OTP-AM	H-784

LD 507 provides Native Americans incarcerated in a state prison or county jail a right to a reasonable opportunity to conduct or take part in Native American religious practices and ceremonies. LD 507 provides that failure of the facility to provide reasonable accommodation for Native American religious practices and ceremonies is unlawful discrimination pursuant to the Maine Human Rights Act; remedies for such failure are provided under that Act. The bill directs the Commissioner of Corrections to seek to develop, in consultation with an advisory group of Native Americans, guidance policies to assist correctional and detention facilities and county jails in providing reasonable accommodations for Native American religious practices and ceremonies.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-784)

This amendment replaces the bill. It requires the Commissioner of Corrections to adopt rules, consistent with all federal requirements, including the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000, 42 United States Code, Chapter 21C, to provide for the accommodation of prisoners' religious practices. The rules may limit or prohibit practices that present a threat to the safety, security or orderly management of the facility. The Department of Corrections' religious services draft policy, dated February 28, 2008, must serve as the basis of the rules. The
