This bill amends the Maine Residents Property Tax Program, also known as the Circuitbreaker Program, by including homesteads occupied by claimants that are qualified personal residence trusts or personal residence trusts. A qualified personal residence trust, or "QPERT," is a trust the governing instrument of which prohibits the trust from holding, for the original duration of the term interest, any asset other than one residence to be used or held for use as a personal residence of the term holder and qualified proceeds. A residence is held for use as a personal residence of the term holder as long as the residence is not occupied by any other person, other than the spouse or a dependent of the term holder, and is available at all times for use by the term holder as a personal residence.

This bill provides a framework for comprehensive income and sales tax reform.

Part A reduces the top rate of the individual income tax from 8.5% to 8.25% for all filing statuses.

Part B increases the earned income credit from 5% of the federal credit to 25% and makes it refundable.

Part C makes the standard deduction under the income tax the same as at the federal level, starting in 2007.

Part D makes the personal exemption under the income tax the same as at the federal level, starting in 2007.

Part E restores conformity with federal law with regard to the deduction of business expenses under Section 179 of the United States Internal Revenue Code.

Part F repeals sales tax exemptions for packaging materials, sales by schools and school-sponsored organizations, ships' stores, railroad track materials and snacks and repeals special treatment of vending machine sales. Part F extends the sales tax to certain long-term rentals, consumer interstate telephone calls, amusement and recreational services, personal property services, personal services, real property services, lawn and landscaping services and taxi and limousine services. Part F also extends the service provider tax to telephone directory advertising, rental and leases of all tangible personal property and motor vehicle parking.

Part G increases the sales tax on short-term auto rentals from 10% to 15%. It increases the sales tax on lodging and prepared food and liquor at licensed establishments from 7% to 8% and provides that the additional revenue from the increase in the tax on meals and lodging is transferred to the Maine Quality Places Fund, which is established to promote conservation of quality places, outdoor recreation and high-quality tourism. Part G also provides that 0.5% of the revenue from the sales tax is transferred to the Outdoor Fund, which is established to support activities of the Department of Conservation and the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife.
