This bill allows an attorney who practices law in a jurisdiction other than this State to be admitted to the general practice of law in this State without complying with the qualifications for admission to practice law specified in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 4, section 805-A. Such an attorney must disclose in writing to a client in this State represented by that attorney that the attorney has not met these qualifications for admission and must obtain from that client written consent to the representation.

Amendments Adopted

This bill makes clear that an attorney who is employed by the State may provide volunteer legal services as long as the volunteer legal services do not create a conflict of interest with the attorney's work for the State. A conflict of interest exists if there is a substantial risk that the attorney's representation of the State as a client would be materially and adversely affected by the attorney's duties pursuant to the provision of the volunteer legal services. Current law prohibits the Attorney General and family law magistrates from engaging in the private practice of law, and this bill retains those prohibitions.
