LD 1189     An Act To Define the Age of Consent for Alcohol or Drug Treatment and Mental Health Services

Accepted Majority (ONTP) Report

Sponsor(s)	Committee Report	Amendments Adopted
POULIOT M HILL D	ONTP OTP-AM

This bill was carried over from the First Regular Session of the 128th Legislature to the Second Regular Session.

This bill provides that a minor who is 14 years of age or older may consent to treatment for abuse of alcohol or drugs or for emotional or psychological problems and does not need the consent of a parent or guardian for such treatment. It also provides that if the parent or guardian consents to such treatment of a minor 14 years of age or older, the minor may not abrogate that consent and that if a minor 14 years of age or older consents to such treatment, a parent or guardian may not abrogate that consent.

Committee Amendment "A" (H-662)

This amendment is the minority report of the committee. It changes from 14 years of age to 12 years of age the age of a minor who may consent to treatment for abuse of alcohol or drugs or for emotional or psychological problems. It removes the provision that prevents a minor from abrogating the consent of the minor's parent or guardian. The bill provides that a parent or guardian may not abrogate the consent to treatment provided by a minor 14 years of age or older; the amendment changes that age to 12 years of age or older.
