person during his last sickness or present at the time of death.

It is my opinion that in order to avoid any question as to whether or not the requirements of the statute have been fulfilled as regarding the certificate of death, it would be advisable, where chiropractor or osteopath is in attendance during the last sickness and at the decease of a person, to have the clerk make and sign the certificate in accordance with the provisions of Section 24.

Very truly yours,

SANFORD L. FOGG,

Deputy Attorney General.

C. F. Kendall, Commissioner, Health Department, Augusta, Maine.

DEAR SIR: In answer to your inquiry of September 9th, regarding quarantine regulations, I am pleased to inform you that it is my opinion that a person who has actual notice of the quarantine and leaves the house or place of quarantine, violates the law, and action can be taken against such person under the provisions of law relating to quarantine.

Actual notice is the test, whether such notice be given orally, in writing or by placard.

Very truly yours,

SANFORD L. FOGG,

Deputy Attorney General.

State Highway Commission, Augusta, Maine.

GENTLEMEN: In answer to your letter of March 12th, regarding the taking of gravel from shores of Grand Lake near "Peter Dana's Point", so-called, in the Indian Reservation, there appears to be no direct authorization by statute regarding this matter, but Section 46 of Chapter 14 of the Revised Statutes, provides that:

"The governor and council may, at the expense of the state, and for the benefit of the Passamaquoddy Tribe, lease or sell the whole
