STATE OF MAINE
DEPARTMENT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
AUGUSTA

January 24, 1934

W. J. Ford, Chairman
Board of Selectmen
Benton Station, Maine

Dear Sir:

In response to your letter of the 15th, I beg to inform you that I do not find any provision of the Gasoline Tax Law that provides for the exemption of municipalities from paying the tax.

I am informed by the State Tax Assessor that all of the towns and cities are paying the tax. Should you require further information I would suggest that you communicate with Mr. Frank H. Holley, State Tax Assessor, State House, Augusta, Maine.

Very truly yours,

Deputy Attorney General
