Hiram Willard, Esquire
Fidelity Trust Building
Sanford, Maine

Dear Brother Willard:

Mrs. Theresa R. Anderson, R. N., Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Examination and Registration of Nurses, has just been in to the office and has left with me a lot of correspondence which she has had with Miss Fannie Burnham, Superintendent of the Goodall Hospital in Sanford, and a letter from you under date of May 18, 1935, and her reply to you under date of May 21, 1935. She says that since writing you she has not heard from you about this case although she has received several letters from Miss Burnham which she signs using the letters "R. N." after her name, apparently in violation of the law regulating the use of this designation.

Mrs. Anderson says that Miss Burnham filed her application for registration after some correspondence and paid the fee but that she has not presented herself for examination.

Can't you do something to help me straighten out this comparatively minor matter which is an important one to the Board, and which is the subject of a good deal of discussion among the nurses of the State?

Very truly yours,

Franz U. Burkett
Attorney General
