Captain Joseph F. Young, Jr
Deputy Chief State Police
Augusta, Maine

Dear Sir:

Section 125 of Chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes gives to the Chief and Members of the State Police all the powers and duties throughout the several counties of the State as sheriffs have in their respective counties.

The rules and regulations on Pages 59, 60 and 61 were made in accordance with the provisions of Section 65 of Chapter 29, and the note at the bottom of Section 65 states that they have been approved by the Governor and Council, and published in the daily papers as required by that section and they are therefore in effect.

Members of the State Police have jurisdiction to make arrests for violations of these rules and regulations, and if any penalty is provided the punishment shall be imposed in accordance with the general provisions of Section 119.

Very truly yours,

Franz U. Burkett
Attorney General
