Frank I. Cowan, Attorney General

Everett W. Downs, Deputy Treasurer of State

On January 17th you asked this office about payments to the Town of Wayne. I discussed the matter with Peter Mills, a member of the Legislature who, I understand, was originally interested in the matter, and it was my understanding that he is going to arrange to have a conference with you sometime shortly.

If you have on hand now sufficient money to recompense the State, there is no reason why any balance should not be turned over to the town.

Attorney General
