Frank I. Cowan, Attorney General

William D. Hayes, State Auditor

I note inquiry of James H. Ames, a Trial Justice, addressed to you under date of February 18, 1941, asking to whom he should make payment of certain costs if they do not accrue to the State.

My feeling would be that in connection with the particular matters referred to in your circular letter of February 1st, no costs at all should be assessed under circumstances covered by the matter discussed in that letter.
