Attorney General Frank I. Cowan

State Auditor, William D. Hayes

I have your further request of March 28th, in regard to apportionment of railroad taxes.

The reason why I wanted to take plenty of time and go thoroughly into the history of the matter myself before giving an opinion was because of the words in the statute "from the taxes received". However, I am thoroughly convinced that I have the correct historical facts explaining the use of the language, and that the opinion which I gave you under date of March 27th, is the correct interpretation.

Attorney General
