George J. Stobie, Commissioner
Inland Fisheries and Game
Augusta, Maine

Dear Sir:

In response to your letter of the 25th, relative to Lt. Col. F. B. Valentine, et als. of the 42 Bomb Group, Bangor Air Base, Bangor, Maine, securing hunting and fishing licenses at the rate now in effect for residents of the State, I very much regret to have to inform you that I do not know of any way in which it can be done.

Sections 19 and 41 of the Biennial Revision of the Inland Fish and Game Laws provide very clearly how and to whom licenses may be issued, the amount to be paid for the same, and the disposition thereof.

I do not find any provision of our Constitution or Statutes which gives the Governor and Council power to issue a license or permit to hunt or fish in Maine.

The Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Game, or his authorized agent, have the sole power to issue such license.

Very truly yours,

Sanford L. Fogg
Deputy Attorney General
