John S. S. Fessenden, Assistant Attorney General

A. L. Kane, State Controller

In reply to your request of June 16th, 1942, for a ruling as to reimbursement of travel expense of members of the Boxing Commission, you are advised that under the statute the reasonable transportation expenses of the Chairman are payable out of the fund received under the provisions of the Act creating the State Boxing Commission, and that the travel expenses of the other members of the Commission are reimbursable to those Commissioners upon the certification of the Chairman of the Commission that they are "other necessary expenses of the Commission".
