STATE OF MAINE

REPORT

OF THE

ATTORNEY GENERAL

for the calendar years

1941--1942

Chapter 37 of the Private and Special Laws of 1941, as amended by Chapter 102 in Section 1, sets up the Maine Maritime Academy as a "body corporate and politic, having the same rights, privileges and powers as have corporations organized under the general law,".

Section 3 of said chapter provides that "The trustees may receive in behalf of the school grants from any federal government agency and/or from any of the several states and/or from any other source". Note this is "on behalf of the school" not on behalf of the State.

Chapter 97 of the Private and Special Laws of 1941 has to do with the leasing of the Eastern State Normal School property to the Maine Maritime Academy, reciting "Any such lease shall be executed on the part of the State of Maine by the chairman of the board of normal school trustees and on the part of the Maine Maritime Academy by the chairman of its board of trustees and shall contain a provision that the lessee shall keep the buildings adequately insured against fire, shall keep them in good repair and shall deliver them up to the State of Maine at the expiration of the term of such lease in as good condition as they were at the commencement thereof." A clear cut distinction can be noted as between the State and the school.

Chapter 102, aforesaid, provides for an appropriation, but under the heading of "State Aid".

The school property, both real and personal, covered by the lease is of course property of the State, subject to the lease, but it is the opinion of this department that the Maine Maritime Academy is a separate corporation for which the State appropriates money and not a direct agency of the State.

Very truly yours,

FRANK A. FARRINGTON
Deputy Attorney General

November 10, 1942

From:

Frank A. Farrington, Deputy Attorney General

To:

Earle R. Hayes, Secretary

Employees Retirement System

With reference to your memo of November 6th, asking questions in connection with the Employees Retirement System, we render the following opinion.

1. It is the opinion of this Department that Mr. Arthur H. Whitman was not a State employee during the years he was paid by the County or Counties in which the Court sat.

2. It is the opinion of this Department that an employee separated from the State service because of having reached the age of 70 on July 1st, 1941, may not thereafter become a member of the new retirement system. A member is defined in the Act as any employee included in the membership of the retirement system.
