Frank A. Farrington, Deputy Attorney General

A. W. Perkins, Commissioner of Insurance

Subject: Sec. 57, Chapter 35, R. S. 1930

It is the opinion of this department that the above cited Section of the Revised Statutes, applies to all buildings which are used by the public; i.e. stores, places of amusement, and such places generally as are open to the public, as distinguished from private buildings which are not open to the public.
