January 21, 1943.

Honorable Lucius D. Barrows, Chief Engineer,
State Highway Commission,
Augusta, Maine.

Dear Mr. Barrows,

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 14th relative to the committee set up under the provisions of Chapter 135, Resolves of 1937, for the purpose of making a study of highway planning.

It is the opinion of this department that this committee passed out of existence when no action was taken on the part of the 89th Legislature to continue its existence.

Very truly yours,

Frank A. Farrington
Deputy Attorney General
