Interpretation of Chapter 131, P. L. 1943

I have examined the opinion of Mr. Marshall given to you under date of September 23rd. His interpretation of the law, as therein laid down, is, of course, exactly right.

You inform me that the osteopaths have already made their payments of $2. each for the year July 1, 1943 to June 30, 1944, inclusive. Under the circumstances, it seems to me that you can very properly bill them on January 1, 1944 for the $2. licence fee, but credit them with $1. already received, so that they will not be paying doubly for half of the year 1944.
