To Harold I. Goss, Secretary of State

From Frank I. Cowan, Attorney General

Destruction of Records

I have your memo of November 18th. You have my approval for the destruction of "reports of sales of explosives by local dealers which were required by law to be made to (your) department during World War I." This approval is subject to your receiving the approval of the State Auditor, the Commissioner of Finance, and the State Historian.

Frank I. Cowan
Attorney General
