

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY
at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied
(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

STATE OF MAINE

REPORT

OF THE

ATTORNEY GENERAL

for the calendar years

1943--1944

then no longer in force and he could not revive it by resigning from the legislature.

The office is now vacant and the Governor may appoint him or anyone else as a Trial Justice. . . .

ABRAHAM BREITBARD

Deputy Attorney-General

January 5, 1944

Harrison C. Greenleaf, Commissioner Institutional Service

I have your memo of January 4th in regard to the reduction of sentence of convicts in the State Prison at the rate of seven days per month. Curiously enough, the case of Avis Clark came in for a very considerable discussion at the time she was sentenced. It was my belief, and is now my belief, that a sentence in a manslaughter case to the State Reformatory is not a proper sentence. I believe that manslaughter is not within the provisions of the general statute providing that a woman may be sentenced to the Reformatory in any case except murder, where she would otherwise be sentenced to the State Prison. The judge agreed with me and sentenced her to State Prison.

Technically, she was then "confined" in the State Prison. Under the provisions of P. L. 1935, Chapter 92, she was transferred from the State Prison to the Reformatory. The court has not seen fit to take into consideration departmental procedure under such circumstances. The theory of the court is that the person is taken to Thomaston and there "confined" and transferred thence to Skowhegan. I believe, under your departmental procedure, you have the woman taken directly from the court where she is sentenced, or from a local jail, to Skowhegan, without detouring through Thomaston. We still feel that she has been "confined" in the State Prison and is therefore entitled to the credit of seven days per month.

FRANK I. COWAN

Attorney-General

January 7, 1944

Mr. Maurice E. Worcester
Columbia, Maine

Dear Mr. Worcester,

With reference to the question you put to me, whether you may become a member of the legislature while holding the office of probation officer in Washington County, I have come to the conclusion that you cannot hold both.

Under the statute, a probation officer is appointed by the Governor and Council and his duties primarily relate to the enforcement of State laws in aid of the courts administering and enforcing State laws. You are thus a State officer, although your compensation is paid by the county wherein you reside. See State Treasurer vs. Penobscot County, 107 Maine, 345, at page 348.

Under Article IV, Part Third, Section 11, of the Constitution of Maine, a person holding an office of profit under the State may not,