Hon. Harold L. Dow
House of Representatives

I have examined Section 12 of Chapter 88 of the Revised Statutes of 1944, and in so far as the first paragraph is concerned, I am of the opinion that this provision relates merely to the authority of the constable to proceed to enter complaint and summons to court the owner or keeper of any unlicensed dog, and that the municipal officers, in directing such authority, may incorporate in a single warrant all the persons against whom the constable or other officer is to proceed.

Abraham Breitbard
Deputy Attorney General
