termination of World War II, whichever is the later date. Permits issued prior to the termination of World War II will remain effective until two years after the official declaration. Those issued after the official declaration, to a serviceman discharged subsequent to that time, will remain in force for two years after the date of discharge.

2) Residents of Maine in the armed forces who are on furlough or who are stationed in Maine may have from the town clerk of the town in which they reside, or, if they reside in an unorganized place, then from the clerk of the nearest town, a furlough permit. These are to expire at the end of the year in which they were issued, or earlier, if the war is officially declared terminated by the United States Government.

ABRAHAM BREITBARD
Deputy Attorney General

July 26, 1945

To Fred M. Berry, State Auditor

I have your memo of July 25th, enclosing a copy of a letter received from, Register of Probate, inquiring as to the effect of Chapter 359, P. L. 1945, relating to charging a filing fee on petitions in the probate court; and you ask my opinion concerning this question.

I will say that it is my opinion that the legislature intended that the filing fee should be for the original petition to probate a will and for the original petition to administer an estate. The statute in question reads as follows:

“The register of probate shall receive a filing fee of $3 for each petition to probate a will and for each petition for the administration of an estate, when the estimate value of such estate, as stated in the petition, is $1,000 or over.”

Of course, there would be only one petition for the probate of a will and subsequent petitions would be supplementary, in the case of d. b. n., c. t. a. In my opinion the same would apply to petition for administration.

RALPH W. FARRIS
Attorney General

July 26, 1945

To Earle R. Hayes, Secretary, Employees' Retirement System

I have your memo of July 20th inquiring whether or not the provisions of Section 15 of Chapter 60 of the Revised Statutes give the local participating districts any and all of the benefits and privileges provided for in said Chapter 60.

It is my opinion that the employees of any county, city, town or other local participating districts have all the benefits and privileges provided
