Re: Premium Tax Abatement and Refund

I have your note with memo from the office of Insurance Commissioner Perkins, in which he recommends the abatement and refund of $3,019.36, applicable to the 1946 premium tax assessment to be made to the Hartford Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut.

After reviewing the correspondent attached and the affidavit of the company, and after a conference with the Deputy Insurance Commissioner, Mr. Whitten, I hereby approve this abatement, on the ground of accident or mistake. The company reported to the State of Maine hail premiums for all the New England States, in the sum of $195,288.74, instead of $44,320.48, which is the amount of premiums that should have been reported for the State of Maine.

Ralph W. Farris
Attorney General
