To W. E. Chase, Director, Tobacco Tax Division
Re: Revocation of Wholesale Dealer's License

I have your memo of October 10th, relating to the Unity Sales of Portland and note the facts which reveal that they maintain a small stock of cigarettes at their establishment in Portland for sale, but sell practically all their cigarettes to Ham's, a retail store in Bath, which is owned by themselves.

I feel that you would be justified in revoking their license, unless and until they can show that 75% of their sales are made to other persons for resale, in accordance with the provisions of Section 9, defining the term, "sub-jobber."

Ralph W. Farris
Attorney General
