November 5, 1947

To Earle R. Hayes, Secretary, Employees' Retirement System

Re: Helen C. Jacobson

With regard to your memo of October 20, 1947, concerning Helen C. Jacobson, who was pensioned by order of the Governor and Council under date of May 5, 1939, the payment of which has been suspended pending an award to her of workmen's compensation for permanent disability. You advise me that the compensation ceased on September 27, 1947. She would therefore be entitled to be restored to the pension list and receive the pension of $9 a week under the Council Order aforesaid.

Abraham Breitbard
Deputy Attorney General
